OTTO SCHUTZE,
Observer, U. S A.

OLD NEWSPAPERS, suitable for wrapping paper, in packages of fifty, for sale at this office. tf.

ONE more poor unfortunate, this time a sailor man, was picked up to-day and carried to the guard house, there to ease his poor aching head, and to have all his woes and sorrows healed by the administering fleas, bed bugs and chintzes, which inhabit this wayside inn. To-morrow his Honor will have the painful duty of exacting $5 or $10 a mere trifle, from this child of the sea, for punching, who, and what?—Whiskey, of course. Surely he did not witness the performance of Timony Wing last night. We were there.

NO FIRE.—Just after the conclusion of the performance last night, at the Opera House, the cry of fire was given, and soon the market bell sounded the alarm, causing the several engines to turn out, but after a few minutes fruitless search, it was ascertained that there was no fire at all. Company A had been drilling in the armory, under the City Hall, and the command to fire was given, which was caught up by a lot of urchins outside, which resulted in causing all the excitement that ensued. Only a false alarm and nothing more.

A BIG excitement took place at the corner of Second and Princess streets, about 2 o'clock to-day, and our first thought was, upon hastening to the scene, that the "old jail" had fallen down and killed several persons, or something of that kind, but judge of our surprise when arriving upon the scene to find that it was nothing more nor less than a regular fisticuff fight between a son of Ham and a couple of females. A few blows were passed, but no damage done. There is no telling what might have been the result had not the amiable spouse of said son of Ham come up just in the nick of time, to the rescue of her better half, for he was down on the ground quietly receiving the friendly blows so well aimed by his she-male antagonist.

THE NEW HIBERNICON.—MacEvoy's New Hibernicon, which will be exhibited at the Opera House to-night, a matinee to-morrow, and again on to-morrow evening, is said, by all of our exchanges, with no dissenting voice, to be really well worth seeing.

The sketches of scenes in the beautiful Emerald Isle are really exquisite, and, in addition to this, we will be treated to a first class dramatic entertainment, combining Irish comedy, fine scenery, songs and dances; in fact, the Hibernicon is an ollapodrida of scenery, wit, humor and dramatic delineation which our theatre goers should not miss the opportunity of enjoying.

Hear what the Atlanta Constitution says of the New Hibernicon:

"MacEvoy's New Hibernicon was exhibited last night at the Opera House for the second time. Mr. Lawlor gains the friendship of all at first appearance, and grows more popular the more he appears, being recalled as often as he will come. One of the features of the entertainment was the rendition, by Mr. Emile Ames, of the two dissimilar characters of Old Black Joe and Fritzy, the comic Dutchman, each of which was most admirably given. The audience could be easily made to believe that Old Joe was a genuine old nigger.

The ladies, Miss Mary McCrea, Miss Kate Reilly and Miss Kate Byrnes, are not only good actresses, but sweet gingers, rendering the plaintive strains of old Ireland in excellent style.

The Hibernicon is one of the happiest combinations of historical, musical and comical talent now traveling."

Matinee Thursday at 3 o'clock—Matinee prices: Adults 50 cts., children 15 cents.

ORION Lodge meets to-night. Several initiations.

THE steeple of St. Marks Episcopal church is being completed.

THE steamer A. P. Hurt is laid up at Fayetteville for repairs.

DON'T forget the New Hibernicon to-night. Let every body go.

BEAR in mind the annual pew-renting at the First Baptist church to-night.

MR. SILAS N. MARTIN is spoken of for County Treasurer. A better selection could not be made.

CAPTAIN JOHN COWAN has accepted the invitation of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, to act as Chief Marshal, on Memorial Day.

THE tax listers are at their post of duty again to day. This is the last opportunity. Call and see them, ye careless ones, or abide the consequences.

OUR devil says: "Anybody having a bran, spanking, new pocket-knife, that they have no further use for, can find a willing receiver by bringing it around to the Post." Who'll bid?

THE chain gang are at work to-day, levelling and otherwise improving Fifth street. Keep them there Mr. Marshall until it is finished and we citizens of Fifth street will thank you for it.

MR. JULIUS W. WRIGHT, formerly of Wilmington, has assumed the editorial chair of the Statesville Intelligencer. Mr. Wright is a gentleman of ability and we hail his return to the corps editorial.

CRAVAT PARTY.—The Sunday School children of the First Baptist church, gave another cravat party last night, at the residence of Wm. French, Esq., and quite a happy time was experienced; likewise a snug sum of money for the benefit of said church.

MR. H. R. HAMMOND, of Petersburg, will open a Hat store in our city in a few days. Mr. Hammond comes to our midst well recommended by the Petersburg News, both as a good business man and a clever gentleman. We welcome Mr. Hammond within our midst.

COMPLIMENTARY PIC-NIC.—The complimentary pic-nic to P. C. William Koch, by the members of Germania Lodge, to be given at the Wilmington Gardens to-night, judging from the many preparations which have been made, promises to be a grand affair. Everybody and his wife will be there of course.

FESTIVAL.—This (Wednesday) and to-morrow (Thusday) nights, the members of the First Colored Presbyterian church of this city, will hold a Neck Tie Festival, for the benefit of said church. Many preparations have been made, and abundance of ice cream, lemonade, etc., etc., will be on hand.—The public are invited to attend.

The Bridgeport (Conn.) Odd Fellows gave Mr. Schuyler Colfax a gold-headed cane, and the chaplain of the lodge in presenting it said: "This gold is emblematic of the purity and brilliancy of your character, the steel ferule illustrates the firmness and trueness of your principles, while the wood represents the perishable character of the calumnies uttered against you."

MARINE NEWS.—The Newbern Newbernian says: The schooner W. H. Travers, Tall, Master, with a cargo of sulphur and animal matter, bound for Wilmington, put into this port last week in distress, having lost a good portion of her sails and rigging, and also being in a leaky condition. Her cargo was discharged and stored by direction of B. L. Perry, Esq., agent for the Underwriters, and the vessel left via canal on Friday for Baltimore for repairs.

REV. R. S. MORAN, D. D.—We see by the morning papers that this eloquent divine has been invited to assume charge of St. Paul's Reformed Church, in New York, at a salary of four thousand dollars ($4,000) per annum. His many friends all over the State are justly proud of this high compliment paid to Dr. Moran, the Methodist Church, and our State, and deep sorrow will be felt at his loss should he consent to accept the invitation. His place could not be filled, so highly is he esteemed by his congregation.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

"After a storm always a calm." So it is with this court of justice to day.—Only two cases were brought up, viz: One sailor man, for drunkenness, ordered to come down with $5 00 and costs, or the alternative, 10 days on the streets. He accepted the former generous offer, hauled out his pocket book, and settled up like a man. Wise boy!

One case of disorderly conduct—charges not sustained, the party was dismissed, and went on his way rejoicing; singing as far as the ear could reach, "Auld Lang syne," "I won't go home 'till morn," etc., etc.

NOTHING additional has been received relative to the lighter, Modoc, which was sunk yesterday, down the river, by the steamship Regulator.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The following cases were tried before the Superior Court to-day, viz:

Ben Williams, larceny; guilty.
Geo. Owens, larceny; guilty. (2 cases.)
James Armstrong, larceny; guilty.
Aaron Willis, Fred Davis. Thos. Evans, (not pros as to Evans,) cases not concluded.

RUMOR.—That a couple of gentlemen were to have gone out in the woods on Sunday last, for the purpose of punching holes through each other, or in other words, a regular "bang up" duel was to take place. It is said that the police were scouring the woods for them, but failed to catch a glimpse of the worthies, until one of the officers observed a closely veiled carriage coming down the road, which upon approaching, after halting said vehicle, they peered within, and —— failed to discover either one of the participants. Failing to find the duelists they returned to the city. Whether it took place or not, we are unable to say, but certain it is, that both were seen on the streets to-day, with nary hole punched through neither one of them, and from their friendly manner no such thing is likely to take place during the nineteenth century. So much for Madame Rumor

ROSE AND HARRY WATKINS.—The Watkins troupe closed their engagement in our city last night, with the performance of the great moral drama entitled "His Worst Enemy." This troupe, upon the whole, is the best that has visited our city in a long time, and were deserving of more patronage at the hands of our citizens than they received. The performance last night was a very meritorious one, the vicissitudes of a drunkard's life was fully depicted, each one rendering his or her part to perfection. The drama itself is well gotten up, and we believe its presentation throughout our land would accomplish more benefit in reforming the drunkard, than all the crusaders combined, for the lessons here inculcated are durable and lasting. We sincerely trust that our citizens will more liberally reward these eminent artists upon their next visit to our city, and it is our earnest desire that they will meet with much more success on their southern tour than they received in Wilmington, for such they most justly deserve.

NEW POST OFFICE.—We, with all our citizens, rejoice to know that the building of the new Post Office in our city has finally been determined upon; the Department at Washington having contracted for the lease for a number of years, the premises southwest corner of Chesnut and Second streets, the property of the Hon. R. R. Bridgers. The material used in its construction is to be brick, and the building will be two stories high, fronting 44 feet on Chestnut and 60 feet on Second streets, and to be surmounted by a tower, with entrances on both streets. It is also said that its erection will be begun next week.

P. S. Colonel Brink informs that the building will be a magnificent one. It is to be built of Baltimore pressed brick with an iron front, and is to be completed by the 1st of August. Mr. R. B. Wood, Sr., has the contract, and as we have already stated, the building will be begun next week.

The site is a most desirable one, being accessable to our business men, likewise to our citizens, but more particularly so to the ladies. Taking everything into consideration, a more desirable situation could not have been selected.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 22.

An order of arrest has been granted by Judge Donahue in the Supreme Court Chambers, against Capt. Laramie, late of the Europe, a French line steamer, on suit for libel brought by Capt. Thomas, of steamship Greece, of the National line.

500 discontented sailors attempting to interfere with crews, succeeded in forcing men from one vessel but were badly worsted in the second. The captain killed one and wounded several when the police reached the scene in boats and arrested the leaders.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, April 22.

A dispatch from Southwest Pass states that on Friday three men in a boat from the ship Seimi, outside the bar started for the telegraph station, when a sudden squall came up and they were blown to the westward. The first officer noticing their helpless condition, immediately dispatched the Captain's gig, with six men, to rescue them, but both boats were blown to sea and have not been heard from since. The revenue cutter John A. Dix yesterday made an unsuccessful cruise in search of them. Hopes are entertained that they may have been picked up by some passing vessel.

There are 15 legal liquor distilleries in the Asheville district, 13 of which are in operation.

The Pioneer says: "In Polk county, one day last week, Deputy Marshal, W. H. Deaver, with a squad of men, succeeded in arresting eleven of the illicit distillers charged with destroying the dwelling of Jake Cantrell, an account of which appeared in our issue of last week. While conveying his prisoners to jail at Rutherfordton, an attempt at rescue was made by their friends, which was frustrated by the officer and his posse.

A valuable mineral spring has been discovered on the land of Mr. Gilbert Tennent, of Buncome county. It is said that one gill of the water will go much further and faster than Epsom salts. Two weeks ago a man, on his way to town with a load of wood, stopped and took a big draught of it. He camped there for the rest of the day, and is now so transparent that his friends hold him up between them and the moon while they make astronomical observattons through him.

SUFFER NO MORE!

DR. BALLOU, whose name where he is known, is sufficient to fill his office with patients the whole time during his office hours, is stopping for a few days at the Purcell House, parlor 6. We copy the following from the News and Courier, Charleston, S. C.: The Doctor is certainly making some of the most wonderful cures that has ever been known here. J. W. Semken, corner Beaufain and Coming streets, who has had Rheumatism for over six years, is now walking around. We are witnesses in the above case: J. H. Pieper, Capt. G. G. Ducker. He has also cured Wm. Hoffman of Sciatica, N. B. Fields of Bronchitis, Henry Leonard of Neuralgia, and several others of Lung and Throat Diseases whose names may be seen at his office. The Doctor cures all diseases of the Generative Organs, Seminal Weakness, &c. All treatment strictly confidential.

The Doctor invites all classes of Physicians in to see the effects of his remedies. He will remain until he cures any case he contracts to treat, and he cures many cases with one treatment.

Cremation.

The General Assembly of New York is considering a bill to incorporate an Incrematian Company, with a capital of $50,000. This project seems to have taken hold of the public mind with considerable force, and it is possible that it may become the practice of the world. This planet of ours is exceedingly old, and man has been an inhabitant thereof for ages. There is no possible computation which will tell us how deep a stratum the remains of our race would make, if they were unconglomerated and evenly diffused. Certainly if the work of decay of the human body had never taken place, this orb would be one vast charnel house and uninhabitable.

The agencies of Nature resolve our bodies unto their original elements, and after the lapse of many years or centuries, every resemblance to the structure of our frame has disappeared. Cremation proposes to do this in an artificial manner. It will do in a few hours what centuries are required to perform in the ordinary course of nature.

But there are some other considerations which will go a great way in settling our minds about it. While we perhaps have no objection to the work of cremation on our own bodies after death, can we consent that our dead shall be burned and not buried? This is precisely a case where our concern for others is greater than ourselves.—Our love for the dead arises from many causes; but none are stronger than that which impels us to kiss the lips of our dead which we kissed when warm with life, and thrilling with returning pressure; which makes us gaze on the cold form and know that it was dear and is still dear, and which even after burial gives back to our imagination the body as we last saw it, changed indeed from life, but with the work of decay hardly begun. It is because we love the form as well as the soul of our dead that we would not have their bodies burned.

Lookout Mountain.

Most persons in this country or in Europe who have heard of Lookout Mountain since "the war" have also been told of the "battle above the clouds." It was my fortune to scale the remarkable palisade at a time when the broad plateau which runs along its summit was literally enshrouded in formidable mists. The rain was falling in torrents as, with two companions, I galloped through the little town at the foot of the mountain; but, ere we had scaled the winding road, the shower was over, and a brisk wind began to stir the mists. We could see little but the ledges along whose sides the route ran, but as we arrived nearly at the summit, the mist curtain was lifted for an instant, and revealed to us a delicious expanse of valley, with sunlight smiles here and there chasing away the rain's tears. Then we were shrouded in again, and our horses, apparently inspired by the gloomy grandeur of the occasion, rattled furiously along the hard roads, over which the boughs hung uncomfortably near our heads. The red sandy clay nourishes enormous pines, whose roots have here and there been disturbed by the sandstone bowlders, and stretched out their fibers in a desperate grasp; along the pathways great blocks of stone, carved by the storms and polished by the winds, are scattered. We galloped nearly to the massive perpendicular wall which arises directly out of the valley, and disdainfully frowns down upon the Tennessee, spurned from its base fourteen hundred feet below, and tethering our horses, approached to the very edge. There we seemed shut off from all the world. Now and then a hum from the valley—the faint growl of a locomotive or the rolling of wheels—came faintly up; we heard the cowbells and the bleating of the sheep on the hillsides behind us; and just as we were trying to imagine how "the battle" must have been, the wind came sweeping away the mist curtain, and—we beheld the whole!—Scribner's for May.

Since Mrs. Wilson of Mt. Vernon, Ill., thrust a cocked revolver into Dr. Porter's face and persuaded him to revoke one of his prescriptions, it is considered hazardous for physicians in that region to prescribe alcoholic stimulants for married men.

Alex. Stephens' Compliments to Ben. H. Hill.

Alexander H. Stephens has now fallen foul of Ben. H. Hill, in consequence of the matters relating to himself personally in Hill's recent "historical" address before the Georgia branch of the Southern Historical Society. Thus far Mr. Stephens has written but one ten-column letter in reference to the matter, but he promises more if his "strength will permit." This letter is sufficiently spicy to warrant something lively when he gets warmed up to the work. For example, he says: "With these personalities of Mr. Hill, or his personal flings at me of any kind, which he has been indulging in to a greater or less extent for several years past, it is not my purpose now to deal, nor is it my purpose to enter upon any vindication of myself against these imputations, nor upon any defense of my fidelity and devotion to the success of the Confederate cause upon the principles on which it was based. I should think I had lived to but little purpose if I deemed it necessary to do so."

This is sufficiently mild, but presently he says: "If the merits of historical contributions consist in high-wrought oratory, with special regard to rhetoric, and without any to facts, then, indeed, this display of Mr. Hill may well be heralded as a sample of the highest performance of its kind ever before [sic] exhibited by a Georgian, and it is to be hoped that it will remain without a rival of its class by all Georgian for all time to come." And further: "I assert, then, in the outset of my comments upon his paper in this view of the subject, that for recklessness of statement and perversion of facts, it is, in several particulars, without a parallel in the whole range of my reading. I allude specially to those parts which refer to the internal history of the Confederate States, and his connection with it. In these it partakes more of the character of the contributions to the history of the French Revolution by Bertrand Barere, in the four volumes of his memoirs, than any similar production which has been brought to my notice. In speaking of these, Macaulay, in his review of them, says: 'A man who has never been within the tropics does not know what a thunder-storm means; a man who has never looked on Niagara has but a faint idea of a cataract; and he who has not read Barere's Memoirs may be said not to know what it is to lie.' What Macaulay might have said, or how he might have characterized this last 'carmagnole' of Mr. Hill, must be left to conjecture; but suffice it for me to say that in none of the instances given by the great British reviewer of the falsifications of the records of the truths of history by Barere in the four volumes of his Memoirs, is there anything more marked by unblushing arrogance, impudent insolence, and brazen audacity in the perversion of facts, than is contained in this most extraordinary contribution by Mr. Hill to Southern history."

Mr. Stephens proceeds to give a few samples, one of which relates to the Hampton Roads conference, "the shamelessness, impudence and recklessness" of which he says, "could not possibly have been exceeded be Barere himself." "There is not one word of truth in it," he continues, "except that 'much has been said and published on the subject which is not true,' and nothing has ever ever been published about it more untrue than what Mr. Hill has thus written and published himself. It is utterly impossible that Mr. Hill could have known what he says he knew, or received from Mr. Davis what he says he received from him."

But qnotations crowd upon us, and for want of space we must forbear, mentioning only that Mr. Stephens goes on to talk about Mr. Hill's "usual shamelessness of face," his "jumble of bald, reckless assertions of untruths," his "fancy or fiction sketches,' &c., &c. But speaking of his accout of the removal of Gen. Joe. Johnston, he caps all by exclaiming: "Mr. Hill must have been flushed with more than his accustomed degree of shameless-facedness when he presumed to palm off upon an intelligent public such a Munchausenism as truth."

Hair Raising not in the Indian Way.

The San Francisco Bulletin of April 9 gives the following account of a curious lawsuit tried in that city: "In September last Jos. R. Tilton brought an action in the Justice's Court against Peter Taylor, to recover $200. In the complaint Tilton alleged that Taylor was partially bald in certain places on his head, and that he agreed to pay $200 to have his hair restored. This agreement was in writing, and $100 was to be paid when the hair started; the balance when the hair should be fully restored, provided the application did no injury. Tilton says he made a few applications of his restorative, and the hair commenced to grow on Taylor's head; but Taylor tired of the operation and refused to continue the application or to pay the $200. The case was tried before Justice Verdenal, who rendered judgment for defendant. Plaintiff took an appeal, and this morning the case came up for hearing in the County Court. After impaneling a jury, defendant's counsel moved to dismiss the action on the ground that the complaint did not state sufficient facts to constitute an action. Arguments were made and Judge Stanly granted the motion to dismiss on the ground that the complaint did not state facts sufficient to constitute a case in that the written agreement between the parties upon which the complaint was based was not mutual, as it only bound Taylor. Tilton, under this agreement, could discontinue his services at any time, and Taylor had no recourse."

The Brazil Government seems to be very much in earnest in its contest with the Roman Catholic Church. Besides the conviction of the Bishop of Pernambuco, the Bishop of Olinda has been arrested, and the Archbishop of Bahai has formally protested against the act. The bitter warfare between church and State appears to have had its origin in the efforts of the clergy to suppress and put under ban the order of Free Masons.

The Nautical Gazette thinks that the reports which have recently appeared that the storms on the Atlantic have of late years increased in frequency and violence are nonsense. It says the modern steamers are constructed on such wretched models that they are unfit for rough weather. The old proportions of beam and depth to length are now disregarded, and the modern steamers, like velocipedes, must be kept going at a high rate of speed or go down.

The briefness of the period in which a city may become buried in the sand of an African desert is illustrated in the case of Ismaillia, which built in 1869, at the time of the opening of the Suez canal. It then had ten thousand inhabitants. It is now almost deserted, a miserable remnant of 1,900 people only being left. Even the palace built by the Viceroy to entertain his royal guests is becoming dilapidated, and the courtyard is half full of drifting sand. Trains between Cairo and Ismailia are often sand bound during a storm.

Our Coast.

The Norfolk Day Book says: The entire distance traversed between Cape Henery and Cape Hatteras light, along the indentations of the coast, was 125 miles. The line extends along the coast at an average distance of 150 yards above the limits of the surf. Two inlets had to be spanned with cable, namely, Oregon Inlet, 973 58-100 yards wide. Between the two inlets lies Body's Island, eight miles wide. Signal and life saving stations are in process of erection or marked out, going South from Cape Henry, at Kitty Hawk, Body's Island, Chickamacomico and Kenekeet. Other will be established, but their locations have not been decided upon. As a proof of the immense value these stations will be to the commercial interests of the country, James H. Bigbee. who commanded the expedition, and said he counted over 100 wrecked vessels of all classes along the coast, and learned that in numerous instances the entire crew was lost. These were not all recent wrecks, but illustrated the terrors of this dangerous coast, along which the signal service bureau will soon have stretched a chain of signal and life-saving stations, which will be the means of rescuing many lives and reclaiming merchandise of great value.

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

The "St. Louis & Southeastern"

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BARRETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 242, Chattanooga Tenn., or to the undersigned.

THE YOUTH'S

COMPANION

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR

Young People

AND THE FAMILY.

THE COMPANION aims to be a favorite in every family—looked for eagerly by the young folks, and read with interest by the older. Its purpose is to interest while it amuses; to be judicious, practical, sensible: and to have really permanent worth, while it attracts for the hour.

It is handsomely illustrated, and has for contributors some of the most attractive writers in the country. Among these are:

Edward Eggleston, Dr. I. I. Hayes, Prof. Jas. DeMille, Louise C. Moulton, Louisa M. Alcott, "Sophie May," Rebecca H. Davis, C. A. Stephens, C. W. Flanders, Ruth Chesterfield, S. S. Robbins, M. A. Denison.

Its reading is adapted to the old and young, is very varied in its character: sprightly and entertaining. It gives

Stories of Adventure, Stories of Home and School Life,
Letters of Travel, Tales, Poetry,
Editorials upon current Topics, Selections for Declamation,
Historical Articles, Anecdotes, Puzzles,
Biographical Sketches, Facts and Incidents. Religious Articles,

AN ORDINANCE

CONCERNING PAVING ON CHESTNUT STREET WITH COBBLE STONE.

THE Board of Aldermen of the city of Wilmington, N. C., do

ORDAIN, That that portion of Chestnut street, between the western line of Front street and the river, be paved with cobble stone, and when the work shall have been completed; the Mayor shall cause an assessment of the real property along said street and the vicinity thereof, to defray the expense of said pavement, in whole or in part, as is provided by law.

All ordinances, or parts therof, conflicting with the above ordinance are hereby repealed.

The above ordinance was passed by the Board of Aldermen at their meeting, held on the night of January 2d, 1872.

THE EVENING POST.

E. B. SANDERS.

EDITOR AND MANAGER.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

LATEST NEWS,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

Prospectus for 1874—Seventh year

THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of 'steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALIENE will at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten thousand dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountins New Hampshire the other gives the Cliffs, of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves in a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 10) and appearance exact fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr Moran himself.

NEWARK, N.J., Sept 20th,
Messrs. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with proofs the color of your chromos. They wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
(Signed,) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and neither are they any the worse if by reason of peculiar facilites of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprise that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 11 x 20 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificated is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

THE SUN.

—:o:—

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more are briefly as follows.

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when o moment, and always presented in a clear intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.—It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper pulished. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1 00 a year. No discounts from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun. $2 00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN. A large four page newspaper of twenty eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 50 cents a month, or $6 00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address,
